

Reduce Noise to Improve Life

Euronoise 2018

Crete

Dear Colleague,

Euronoise 2018, the 11th European Congress and Exposition on Noise Control Engineering, will be held in Hersonissos, Crete between 27 and 31 of May 2018.

Acousticians and noise experts from all over the World will gather in Crete to discuss recent research outcome and innovations in noise pollution, noise and vibration control, soundscape, and many related topics.

Euronoise is one of the main conferences organized by the European Acoustics Association, an association gathering 33 national acoustical societies from all over Europe.

The Hellenic Institute of Acoustics warmly welcomes you to Crete for Euronoise 2018.

Deadlines :

Special session proposals : 31st August 2017
Submission of Abstracts: 15th November 2017
Submission of Full paper: 15th March 2018

Venue

The Euronoise 2018 conference will take place in the Creta Maris Convention Centre in Hersonissos, Crete. Hersonissos is a touristic village and port situated 25 Km east of Heraklion, the Capital of Crete. During the period of the Conference, “Nikos Kazantzakis” International Airport of Heraklion (Distance 20 Km from the Conference venue) is linked with more than 50 European airports with direct regular and charter flights.

Creta Maris Convention Centre provides Euronoise 2018 with more than sufficient conference accommodation and adequate exhibition & catering space, adjacent to the congress accommodation.

Scientific and technical program

The technical program will contain structured and regular sessions on all aspects of Noise and General Acoustics:

- Room and building acoustics
- Noise and vibration control
- Absorbing materials
- Noise barriers
- Aircraft noise
- Airport noise
- Railway noise
- Tire/road noise
- Wind turbine noise
- Structural acoustics and vibration
- Noise mapping
- Health effects of sound
- Soundscapes
- Noise legislation

- Measurement techniques
- Source identification and localization
- Auralisation
- Audiology
- Underwater sound
- Electroacoustics
- Non-linear acoustics
- Computational acoustics
- General linear acoustics
- Sound propagation
- Standardization
- Thermoacoustics
- Ultrasound

Exhibition

The European Acoustics Exhibition is an inherent part of Euronoise 2018. Companies, manufacturers, engineering service providers, research units, technical and scientific organizations and publishers are invited to participate at the Exhibition. There, they will have the opportunity to inform a large group of specialists in acoustics about their newest equipment and instrumentation, methods and software solutions, materials, standards, guidelines and publications. More information on how to reserve a booth at the Exhibition can be found at the congress website.

Young acousticians

Euronoise 2018 pays special attention to the young scientists. Apart from the grants and awards sponsored by the EAA, the Conference organizers welcome young acousticians and will assist them, upon request, to organize special social events, tutorial lectures, and other similar activities.
